The other day the little Moni'er gave them a shock; and now, at Fort Pula ke, the Savannsh Republican eays our articlerists used steel pointed coulcal ehot hose effects, though prohibly exaggerated in the ing. The story that these steel-printed shot lerced holes through the strut walls of the forl is doubtless untrue. The gues are at seven hundred yards from the walls; and experiment has shown that the highest power of an elergated shot is at thirty yards, at which distance the shot have penetrated eight feet -hnt into sand. The scenracy of our fire with these new steel pointed clorgated nissiles rechably had nnother effect, more formldable than drilling holes through the walis, name-Ir, to dismoont the barbette guns and to destroy others by firing into the ports. The Secessionists at Paducah asserted that the rabel army at Corinth was rapidly being augmented to a ferce 150,000 strong; that the plan of the rabel leaders, as avowed in camp and made known to their filends abread, was to make a sudden and trainondous attack upon Gen. Grant and anoth-late his srmy.

The information gained by the Chaplain was so evidently reliable, and notes uch an impression upon his mind, that he left his post and want to Pittsburg Landing to lay the matter before (fan. On Sunday morning following, the Cheplain, who had elept on one of the transpute at the Landlog, rose or, with the subject still pressiog heavily noon his mird. He felt cooldent that the attack would take place that day. All was quiet at the Landing, but when he accended the bluff, and started to the front of our lines, about three miles distant, he heard, for the first time, the rearing sound of the enemy's gnue, and shortly afterwards, saw the first lot of wounded acidlers borne past him. The letter of Cuthbert Bullitt, Lq, Mayor Menroo of New Orleans le published is onr paper this morning in the hope that It may reach its destination by means of some flag of truce from cur advanced army. All the unfer tonsts Confederate wounded have implored Mr. liullitt to write to their familles and friends, hu It would he needless to accede to this request, as the letters could not be forwarded. If Genera Wool will send a copy of this paper by the next flag to Norfolk, or Generals Halleck, Bnell o Mitchell find an opportunity of similer character they will be doing a bnmane act.

JEWISH FEASI .- The Jewish feast of the Passover inaugurated on Monday, closed yesterday During the eight days our Hebrew friends eat the unleavened bread, many of the stricter ones suspending business for the time. During this season, also, the Jewish families clean their entire honses, and use plate and crockery especially kept for the pecasion. The Sidar service is an important cereasony, during which bitter herbe ere sater, and the story of the departure of the children of Israel is retold. A peculiar wine made of raisins, is drunk, and a glass set apart for Elias. The moster of the house dips his fingers in the wine, and, shaking the drops on the table cloth, pronounces the names of the nine plagues of Egypt. Many other ceremoniss are performed, clther in the honseholds or the synagogues, one of which is the fasting of all the firetborn sons. These caremonies are commemorative of the afflictions of the Hebrews and their final escare from the Egyptians, and have been obsorved since the time of Moses and Aaron.

SHERIFF OF OLDHAM -We are told that the Union mon of Oldham county will probably meet in conveation for the purpose of uominating a candidate for the office of Sheriff of that county. and perhaps also candidates for other county offices; and as the county is overwhelmingly in favor of "the Union, the Constitution, and the euforcements of the laws, we trust that no one whose record and antecedents are doubtful on this point will be nominated for any office in the gift of the people of that county. Our friend Mr. William W. Werlan, a tried and staunch unconditional Union man, is a candidate for the nominature to the office of Sheriff, and as his qualifications as a business man, and his fitness for the position in every respect are unquestionable, we hope he may be neurinated.

THE NASHVILLE Unton -This paper, recently started by S. C. Mercer, Esq., is vigoronsly edited and hes attained a very large circulation. which is rapidly increasing. We are semewhat surprised that our business men have not availed themselves of it as an advertising medium. Money le beginning to be plentiful in Nashville and the stocks of all kinds want replenishing. If Tennessecans know the fact and the Nashville Union offers the fecilities for them to do so. Mr. C. S. Jenkins has been appointed agent to solicit advertisemen's, and we advise our merchants npon whom he calls to have them ready. The reopening of trade between our two cities will most naterially tend to restore the former era of good

It is known that Mr. Thomas C. Shanks, a member of the Board of Aldermen from the Fourth Ward, is a candidate for the office of Jailer of Jefferson county. There is a provision of the city charter which renders a candidate for any office under the city. State, or Federal goverzment incompetent to sit ln either board. Mr. Shanks was advised by good legal authority, however, that he could retain his sext and continue the canvass for the jailership. The question was raised in his board last sveniog, and a committee was appointed to report upon the case at the next regular meeting of the General Conncil. For the time Mr. Shanks was relieved from duty as an Alderman.

HONORS TO COL. WOODRUFF .- Upon his arrival in New York from Richmond, Col. Wm. E. Woodrnff, of this city, was tendered the compli ment of a dinner and sersnade by the members of the Sixty-ninth Regiment, known as Col. Corcoran's. Col. Woodruff's engagements, however, mads it necessary for him to decline the compli ment. We find the correspondence, which is honorable alike to the gallant Sixty-ninth and the brave Woodiuff, in the Irish American of Satur-

THEATRE. -Mr. Neafie appeared last evening to an excellent audience and performed Virginius very beautifully. To-night he assumes the character of Jack Cade in Judge Coursd'e tragedy, written for Edwin Forrest, and he has the per mission of the great tragedian to 10 form it. Mr. Nsafie has improved greatly, sud he always exhibits the evidences of carsful study. We trust that be will play a profitable engagement.

PARSON BROWNLOW'S BOOK -Agents will cail on our citizens for subscriptions to this narrative of Mr. brownlow's edventures in Eastern Tennes see, and its "trnth will be stranger than fiction. His suffering for his Union sentiments, and the indemitable bravery with which be resisted all the aggressions of the socretionists and all attempts to subjugate bim, will furnish ample materisi for a most interesting volume.

A dead man was left at Owensboro, by the steamer Fairchild, on the 16th inst. From the hest information gathered, his name was J. Kyle, and belonged to the 17th Louisiana regiment. His remains lie buried, in a metailic coffi i, in the puhlic burying-grennd. It is hoped this will mee. the eye of some of his friends or family, that they may know that every attention was paid to the deceased. Col. Glover, with a delachment of troops recently made an exentsion into Knox, Adair, Scotland, Lewis, and Shelby counties, in search of bushwhackers. He gave his men orders to elicot all persons found in arms acting as hushwhackere. The result was that soven marauders were killed, nud left in the woods where they

"Cave Hill Cometery." their graves all numbered, and they lay side by side, our citizens have staples to sell they should let so that hereafter if their friends desire their renoval they can be easily identified.

Many a tear of sorrow floats in the eye of the tender-hearted, and meny a one has fallen to the earth over the memory of the stranger who fills an early grave, far from the home of his childhood and the loved ones whose images are engraved on the heart. The rose and the hyacinth are already planted on the soldier's grave, telling of the visit of some tender, loving heart - perhaps a mother or eister -- who are not fergetful of ha offices of affection.

In my visite to the boats and bospitals, I have sen greatly aided by my friend Rev. D. P. Henderson, paster of the Christian Church of this ity, and well known in Louisiana and New Oreans, who is a constant visitor at the hospitals, administering to the spiritual wants of the sick,
